ABL ARBITRATION CLAIMANTS' MOTION FOR TO INTERVENE AND FOR RECONSIDERATION OF THE PRELIMINARY APPROVAL ORDER

Comes now more than 57,000 individuals who had retained Aylstock, Witkin, Kreis & Overholtz, PLLC, Bradley Grombacher, LLP, and Levin Law, P.A. to institute arbitrations against AT&T (“ABL Arbitration Claimants”) who, by and through counsel, and pursuant to Rules 24 and 60(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure hereby file a Motion for Leave to Intervene and for Reconsideration. In support of this motion, the ABL Arbitration Claimants submit a memorandum of points and authorities, proposed order, supporting declaration and exhibits. The ABL Arbitration Claimants were part of the AT&T Inc. Customer Data Security Breaches and chose to pursue arbitration rather than a class action or settlement. But under the provisional approval order, the ABL Arbitration Claimants are being enjoined from pursuing binding and mandatory arbitration. Furthermore, the approved settlement agreement violates Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23 typicality and adequacy requirement, wrongfully seeks to circulate class notice to those with arbitration agreements, violates the All Writs Act, and overly burdens Arbitration Claimants from opting out of settlement. For the foregoing reasons, the ABL Arbitration Claimants respectfully requests that the Court grant the Motion to Intervene and For Reconsideration of Preliminary Approval Order. We have met and conferred with counsel for the named Plaintiffs for the putative class and Defendant AT&T, Inc. who we believe will both oppose this motion.
